

French

Reading

You can borrow « Phosphore » from the French Department or the following magazines from the LRC : Marie Claire, Authentik. We have plenty of French books in B15 that you are more than welcome to borrow. The LRC also carries a range of French literature books (Harry Potter being one of them!)

Listening

You can borrow DVDs from the French Department and this is an enjoyable way of practising your listening skills and learn new vocabulary. You can borrow French music CDs for free from the LRC. On the French Intranet site, you will find some useful podcasts. You can listen to French radios on the Net: <http://www.franceinter.fr/> <http://www.franceinfo.fr/> <http://www.franceculture.fr/> <http://www.francebleu.fr/>

Grammar

Make sure to revise your grammar packs on a regular basis. You can ask for an A2 mentor to help you with your grammar. Have a look on the French Intranet site for grammar tutorials, exercises, web links etc. Use the online exercises : <http://www.laits.utexas.edu/tex/> is a good one.

Writing and exam preparation

- Start making revision notes and summary sheets using your notes from the packs.
- Read through the feedbacks from essays and LEARN from them.
- Have a look at the French Intranet site for essay models + extra exercises.
- On the French Intranet site, have a look at Sophie's corner for exam tips, listenings, exercises, example of oral exam etc.
