

Study Guide for Politics, Law and Sociology Students

To ensure success PLS students should:

- Construct a list of problem areas and then attend the lunchtime tutorials to discuss these areas.
- List the areas you are confident with (it will give make you feel more optimistic!)
- Use past papers to identify problem questions for revision in class in January.
- Attempt problem questions in your revision time & hand them in to be marked
- Create revision notes & maybe check with teacher to make sure they are not shortened too much
- Use a study buddy/family member to test you.
- Use the silent study areas in the LRC
- Use the PLS classrooms for silent study at lunchtimes.
