

Psychology

AS

- create mind maps for each topic area
- at the end of each booklet create a glossary of key terms/ideas with definitions
- make cue cards with procedures and findings of key studies from each booklet
- complete past papers from AQA website or ask subject tutor for past papers
- Ensure that each booklet is completely filled in
- anticipate possible 12 mark questions from each booklet and plan answers for these questions
- For 12 mark questions identify 3 appropriate evaluation points and make sure each point is well explained

A2

- create mind maps for each topic area
- at the end of each booklet create a glossary of key terms/ideas with definitions
- make cue cards with findings of studies from each booklet, on the flip side - what does this research suggest
- complete past papers from AQA website or ask subject tutor for past papers
- Ensure that each booklet is completely filled in
- practice planning answers for longer research methods questions
- complete as many past papers of the research methods sections as possible
- try and answer as many application questions from anomalous section - practice applying your knowledge

All students - coloured paper A4 and A3 and cue cards are available from the department just ask your tutor